

Margaret Martzolf Bride Of Lieut. LeRoy R. Nelson

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Murtaolf, Cedar Blvd., Mount Lebanon, announce the marriage of their daughter, Margaret, to Lieut. LeRoy Richard Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Nelson, 1301 Main St., here.

The ceremony was performed ~~last Wednesday~~ at 7:30 p. m., by candlelight, in the ~~parlor~~ room of the Mt. Lebanon United Presbyterian church, Pittsburgh, with the Rev. H. Parker Smith, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church of Aliquippa, officiating. Clusters of candelabra, holding tall cathedral candles shed their light from the wall brackets and the room was decorated with white gladioli and greens.

The bride chose a Quaker grey two-piece ensemble with a shoulder length veil of matching shade falling from a caul of silver sequins. She wore a shoulder bouquet of orchids.

Her sister, Mrs. Dorothy Sutton, Mt. Lebanon, was matron of honor, wearing a two-piece suit of Tokay velvet with a corsage of gardenias.

Ralph Tuggart, Pittsburgh, former classmate of the bridegroom at Muskingum college, was best man.

A wedding dinner for more than 25 guests was served following the ceremony in a private dining room of the William Penn Hotel, where bride's roses and a four-tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature soldier and his bride, formed the table decorations. Guests were present from Aliquippa, Mt. Lebanon, New Castle, Beaver Falls, Dormont and Indiana, Pa.

The young couple left Thursday for Pensacola, Fla., where Lieut. Nelson, who received his wings as an Army pilot last August, will be awarded the Gold Wings of a Navy pilot next Friday at his Southern base. A graduate of Aliquippa High school and Muskingum college, New Concord, O., he has been in the armed service since October, 1942, and has been assigned to special service with both the Army and the Navy. He received his basic training at Santa Ana, Cal., and his advanced flight training at Marfa, Tex.

Mrs. Nelson is a graduate of Mt. Lebanon High school and Muskingum college.

The groom's brother, Donald Nelson, is an Army Air Cadet in training with the U. S. Air Force at Nashville, Tenn.
